

2018 Voices from the Dust – Ottawa’s RootsTech Program: Connecting Generations

16 June, 2018

Hosted by the Ottawa Ontario Stake Family History Centre - The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints

1017 Prince of Wales Drive, Ottawa, Ontario

Time	Chapel	Relief Society Room	Primary Room (2018 RootsTech Sessions)
1:00 pm to 1:15 pm:	Welcome and Opening Session by Shirley-Ann Pyefinch
1:15 pm to 1:30 pm:	15 MINUTE BREAK - Visit the Cultural Hall displays.
1:30 pm to 2:30 pm: First Session	Genetic Genealogy by Richard McGregor	FamilySearch: Tools and Resources for the Family Historian by Shirley-Ann Pyefinch	Finding Elusive Records at FamilySearch by Robert Kehrer
2:30 pm to 2:45 pm:	15 MINUTE BREAK - Visit the Cultural Hall displays and enjoy free refreshments.
2:45 pm to 3:45 pm: Second Session	Researching British Home Children by Gloria Tubman	Family History Research at the Ottawa Public Library by Romaine Honey	Use Facebook and Free Apps to Engage Family by Jamie Wade and Kelli Shipp
3:45 pm to 4:00 pm:	15 MINUTE BREAK - Visit the Cultural Hall displays and enjoy free refreshments.
4:00 pm to 5:00 pm: Third Session	Brick and Mortar to Digital: The Birth of the Québec Genealogical Society by Johanne Gervais	Research Strategies by Jean Brown	Choosing Details: The Secret to Compelling Stories by Laura Hedgecock

