

VOICES FROM THE DUST – OTTAWA’S ROOTSTECH

2018 THEME: CONNECTING GENERATIONS

A FREE Family History Conference! Hosted by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints

When: Saturday, June 16, 2018 from 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm

Where: 1017 Prince of Wales Drive, Ottawa, Ontario

Workshops:

- Brick and Mortar to Digital: The Birth of the Québec Genealogical eSociety, by Johanne Gervais
- Family History Research at the Ottawa Public Library, by Romaine Honey
- FamilySearch: Tools and Resources for the Family Historian, by Shirley-Ann Pyefinch
- Genetic Genealogy, by Richard McGregor
- Researching British Home Children, by Gloria Tubman
- Research Strategies, by Jean Brown

RootsTech Sessions:

- Finding Elusive Records at FamilySearch, by Robert Kehrer
- Use Facebook and Free Apps to Engage Family, by Jamie Wade and Kelli Shipp
- Choosing Details: The Secret to Compelling Stories, by Laura Hedgecock

Come and enjoy displays from various local organizations, presentations and free refreshments!

Displays by:

- Arnprior Archives
- BIFHSGO – British Isles Family History Society of Greater Ottawa
- Gloucester Historical Society
- Lanark County Genealogical Society
- Ontario East British Home Child Family
- Ottawa Branch of the Ontario Genealogical Society
- Ottawa Public Library
- Quebec Genealogical eSociety
- John Sayers – British Home Children